

Constellation Announces Update on Restructuring Settlement Negotiations with an Ad Hoc Committee of Holders of the Senior Secured Notes due 2024

Luxembourg, February 22, 2019 – Constellation Oil Services Holding S.A. (“Constellation” or the “Company”), has entered into an amended and restated plan support agreement (the “Amended and Restated PSA”) and Backstop Commitment Agreement (the “BCA”) with (i) 100% of the lenders under its project financings consisting of the syndicated secured credit facility with Amaralina Star Ltd. and Laguna Star Ltd. as borrowers and the syndicated secured credit facility with Brava Star Ltd. as borrower, (ii) Banco Bradesco S.A., Grand Cayman Branch, as lender under its working capital facility, (iii) holders of a majority in amount of the 9.00% Cash / 0.50% PIK Senior Secured Notes due 2024 (the “2024 Notes,” and the holders of the 2024 Notes, the “Noteholders”) issued by the Company pursuant to that indenture dated as of July 27, 2017 by and among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee, paying agent, transfer agent and registrar, and (iv) its shareholders. The Company’s restructuring has the support of a majority of its creditors, as documented in the Amended & Restated PSA and BCA. The Noteholders that are party to the Amended & Restated PSA and BCA have committed to backstop a rights offering to raise $27 million of new capital.

“With the support of holders of over 50% of the 2024 Notes, who have agreed to inject an additional $27 million of new capital into the Company upon closing of our restructuring, we have a majority of all financial creditors supporting the better-capitalized company, and look forward to a quicker path through our restructuring. The Company continues to perform well under its existing and new contracts and appreciates the support of our customers, suppliers, employees and other stakeholders as we recapitalize and re-profile our debt obligations,” said Mr. Leduvy Gouvea, CEO of Constellation.

Discussions with Members of the Ad Hoc Committee of Noteholders

Following the execution of confidentiality agreements (such agreements, including the extensions thereof, the “Confidentiality Agreements”) with, representatives of the Company and the Company’s financial and legal advisors (the “Company Representatives”) met in person and by telephone at various times with representatives of an ad hoc committee of Noteholders (the “Ad Hoc Committee”) and the Ad Hoc Committee’s financial and legal advisors (the “Ad Hoc Committee Representatives”) to discuss the terms of a possible consensual restructuring of the 2024 Notes and related matters (a “Potential Transaction”), and exchanged proposals representing the terms of a Potential Transaction (the “Proposals”). Subsequent to these discussions, the Company reached an agreement regarding its restructuring proceedings with the Ad Hoc Committee and entered into the Amended and Restated PSA and BCA memorializing the terms of that agreement. Under the Confidentiality Agreements, the Company is required to publicly disclose these agreements (the “Cleansing Materials”).
